Vintateresting Game, New Yorks Always Being in Front-Philadelphias Take a Fall Out of the Bostons, and the Pittsburgs Finish Ahead of the Cardinals.

Each of the first three teams of the National teague won its game yesterday. New York from Brooklyn, Pittsburg from St. Louis and Philadelphia from Boston. The result was a widening of the gap between the first and the last teams. The results: New York, S; Brooklyn, 4.

Philadelphia, 7; Boston, 4. Pittsburg, 2; St. Louis, 1. TANDING OF THE CLUBS.

NEW YORK (N. L.), 8; RBOOKLYN, 4. Tailender met leader at Washington Park resterday and the leader won without any resterday and the leader won without any great exertion. The New Yorks made twice as many runs as the Brooklyns and played fully twice as good. That in itself is not saying a great deal, because they won without having to play hard. The New Yorks have played much better ball, and played it often, than they were called upon to play yesterday in the gentle conquest of the Brooklyns. There was a refined comedy touch to Brooklyn's play on occasions that was entertaining in a way, but a flatter and more uninteresting game on the whole is not some often. McGinnity had the situation was entertaining in a way, but a flatter and more uninteresting game on the whole is not seen often. McGinnity had the situation well in hand all the time, although the Brookjens did bunch hits in two innings. But there was no hitting of McGinnity until the champions were so far in front as to make the game a mere procession. The New Yorks banged Stricklett's pitching around the meadows freely and Brooklyn errors were sandwiched in with the hits. Therefore, the runs came easily.

ger. McGinnity's hit gave Gilbert a lift to the plate.

Hits by Dobbs and Lumley in the fourth inning, both of which were just out of McGinnity's reach, Gessler's out at first and Batch's clean drive to center gave Brooklyn two runs. Batch's two bagger, a bad throw by Dahlen and a rapid slam to right by Bergen added one count to Brooklyn's collection in the seventh. In the ninth Babb ambled around on a base on balls, Gilbert's fumble and an out. The out on which he scored was the best play of the game. Dobbs's hard grounder grazed McGann's finger tips, but Gilbert sprinted over behind McGann, scooped the ball and fired it to McGinnity, who caught it at first on the run. The score

New Yorks Win Two Games in One Day From the Boston Team.

There were eventful doings in the American League yesterday. In the first place the New Yorks surprised themselves and the com-munity at large by winning two games from the world's champions. Chesbro emphasized his return to form by pitching in both games. the first of which went ten innings. The Chicagos kept up their fine extra inning record by defeating St. Louis in another ten inning battle, and the victory put them in first place, as the Clevelands were sub-dued by the Detroits. The Washingtons triumped over the strong Philadelphias. The Boston, June 28 .- Clark Griffith's aggregation won both games in to-day's double header, and more brilliant ball playing has header, and more brilliant ball playing has not been seen on the Huntington avenue grounds for many a moon. The first game went through ten innings, and the locals narrowly escaped being shut out in the second. Chesbro, Collins, Chase, Yeager, Selbach and Keeler made some great plays, but of the lot the little rightfielder from New York carried off the honors. His catch of Grimshaw's line drive over his head with the bare left hand in the sixth inning of the second game was the wonder of the afternoon. The play retired the side and probably saved the game. Keeler also nailed Selbach's high smash after a long run. Selbach made several fine catches during the games, nailing one high foul close to the bleachers after a long run.

the meadows freely and Brooklyn errors were sandwiched in with the hits. Therefore, the runs came easily.

Bob Emislie, who stops more foul tips with his person than all the rest of the umpires put together, caught one on his leg yesterday, and as that particular leg was already and as that particular leg was already and bob umpired the rest of the game from a safe stand back of the pitcher. Gilbert started the run getting when he was hit on the shoulder by a pitched ball in the second inning. This was between a couple of flyouts to Dobbs. McGinnity's punch to right put Gilbert on third, and he scored when Batch missed Lumley's throw in. Brown walked and Donlin's hit scored McGinnity.

Stricklett's widness sent McGiann, Mertes and Dahlen to bases in the third inning with nobody out. Devlin stung a single to center, bringing McGann and Mertes home. Dobbs returned Devlin's hit to Stricklett, who threw to Malay at second with the laudable purpose of heading off Devlin there. As the pitcher begins his motion to pitch the man on third starts for home, giving the signal to the batter that he is coming in. It is then up to the batter to hit the hall—a bunt is the proper thing—and to hit it on the ground. If he does this it is impossible to catch the man coming in from third, because he has such a big start and is close enough to the plate to score. The man who hit the ball is taken to comes.

LIABILITIES ARE $3,000,000. Failure of Knight, Donnelly & Co. Bigger Than Was Thought. CHICAGO, June 28 .- The failure of Knight, Donnelly & Co. has assumed gigantic proportions. Although Receiver Potter has not yet finished examination of the books of the defunct concern, enough was learned to-day to approximate the liabilities They will aggregate not far from $3,000,000. The amount of assets may sum up $2,500,000, but they may dwindle considerably owing to the character of many of the loans made by the firm. Most of the creditors agreed to-day that the failure was a bad one, that it was precipated by speculative operations, and that the charspeculative operations, and that the character of many of the securities held was such that quick realization was impossible, and that in consequence of that fact there might be tremendous shrinkage.

The magnitude of the failure was discovered at a meeting of the banker creditors. Upon comparison of their accounts with Knight, Donnelly & Co., it was found that the firm's liabilities would aggregate, if not exceed, $3,000,000. It was impossible to estimate the assets. They are made up largely of stocks, many of them not listed and a market for which is hard to find, of stocks held for customers on margins, considerable Illinois Brick shares and not a few securities in promoting schemes such as gas companies in small towns, which the firm undertook to float.

Many of the liabilities were found to be notes of hand, that is, I O Us given by the firm for loans, money borrowed from friends and trustful business associates.

PEKARZ TO DIE IN AUGUST. His Mother in Germany Bids Him See Priest, but He Won't.

Edward Pekarz, the Bohemian who murdered Mrs. Sarah Rosenberg for a few dollars, was sentenced by Judge Foster in General Sessions yesterday to die in the electric chair in the week of Aug. 14. Pekarz cannot speak English. Through an interpreter he said: "I wish to express an interpreter he said: "I wish to express my thanks to the Court for the trouble it has taken with me." Then he smiled.

After Pekarz's conviction Coroner Scholer wrote to his mother in Germany. The Coroner got a letter from her yesterday. She said that she could not believe her son had committed such a horrible crime, but if he was guilty she advised him. to see a priest and make his reace with God. to see a priest and make his peace with God.
Coroner Scholer read the letter to Pekarz yesterday. Pekarz said:
